

Human body research ethics review application documents

(Internal information should be kept confidential)

Research project name
Ethics review acceptance number		Information submission method
Research projects submitted for ethical review have provided the following documents: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>ÿ 1. Application for ethical review of research involving human subjects</li> <li>ÿ 2. Brief introduction of the main person in charge of the research project (including experience related to this project in the past 5 years)</li> <li>ÿ 3. Research project plan and mission statement</li> <li>ÿ 4. Letter of intent for cooperation from participating units</li> <li>ÿ 5. Informed consent form</li> <li>ÿ 6. Others: _____</li> </ul> [The applicant shall provide other documents required by the Ethics Committee based on the project conditions] <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>ÿ 1. If human research involves the use of ionizing radiation or radioactive isotopes, a radiation safety committee member must be provided will approve documents;</li> <li>ÿ 2. If anthropological research involves DNA recombination or gene transplantation, the biosafety department must be provided Approval of opinion documents;</li> <li>ÿ 3. If compensation issues are involved, a compensation agreement must be provided;</li> <li>ÿ 4. Declaration or proof of insurance method;</li> <li>ÿ 5. Research manual, questionnaire and materials explaining the situation to the research subjects.</li> <li>ÿ 6. Others _____</li> </ul>
Committee Secretary (signature)		date	year month day